

Please do not change the no call regulation as it exists in Wisconsin. The last year has been wonderfully free of the annoying calls we used to receive. We can actually sit down and eat dinner without interruptions. This issue is clearly one of the areas that the Constitution leaves to the states.